Description

This course utilizes a hybrid instructional model designed to maximize your time and hands-on experience. Materials are shared via Google Classroom and the live session is via Zoom. By separating lecture from practice, we ensure that every minute spent in the classroom is dedicated to active learning, skill development, and questions. The last session is devoted for peer-review on your own writing. This is your chance to have your work revised collaboratively.

Requirements: Participants must watch the recorded Lessons and go over materials before the live session.

Course Structure

Each lesson includes 45 minutes of asynchronous work (recorded lesson and additional materials), followed by a synchronous session of 1 hour and 15 minutes twice a week, for a total 12 hours. The last class lasts 2 hours and 30 minutes and is devoted for peer review. Participants should plan an additional 30 minutes (for a total of 2 hours and 30 minutes) after each lesson to complete suggested homework or class discussions.
