Description

This workshop focuses on the decisions that shape a dissertation before writing begins. We will explore key considerations for the topic proposal and logistical foundations (e.g., literature availability, data collection, methodology, and more). We will also review the dissertation types (traditional vs. 3-article) and how to manage the writing challenges of each section. By the end of the session, participants will have a clear understanding about how to approach and prepare for the dissertation process. The workshop will include time for Q&A.

Instructor

Nadia Moraglio, M.A., has over 25 years of teaching experience. She currently teaches writing and develops teacher-training on AI uses at Pima Community College. She is also a writing and language coach at <https://www.mindtopen.com/>.
